5:00 P.M.

Mayor Dr. Victor Trevino called the meeting to order at 5:33 p.m.

The Mayor will be presenting the following:

1. Recognition of the Batting Divas baseball teams.
2. Recognition of Sophia Mejia MVP pitcher.
3. Recognition of youth swimmers for recent accomplishments.
4. Recognition of Mr. Rick Laurel for being appointed as a new board member of the Greater San Antonio Chapter of the American Red Cross, marking the first time a Laredo resident has taken on such an important role within the organization.

The American Red cross is renowned for its humanitarian mission, providing crucial support in times of disaster, health emergencies, and other crises. Its commitment to alleviating human suffering and promoting the well-being of individuals and communities aligns with the values we are trying to pursue.

5. Recognition of the United High School Football Team for making it to the third round of the State playoffs and for playing at the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas on November 25, 2023 during Thanksgiving weekend, a time of year when very few high school football teams are still playing football. The entire Laredo community is extremely proud of your accomplishments. Go Longhorns!
