11. An Ordinance of the The City of Laredo, Texas, amending Chapter 18, 2025-O-192 Licenses, Permits and Miscellaneous Business Regulations, of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Laredo, Texas, by adding Article XI, titled "Filming Regulations"; establishing rules and regulations for the permitting of film, television, and digital media productions; creating a permitting process and fee structure; designating the Laredo Convention and Visitors Bureau as the administering agency; establishing insurance and indemnity requirements; providing for enforcement and penalties; and providing for an effective date. The proposed ordinance seeks to encourage filming activity in Laredo while protecting public health, safety, and welfare, and ensuring an efficient and consistent permitting process.

Staff recommends approval of the ordinance amending Chapter 18 of the City of Laredo Code of Ordinances by adding Article XI, titled "Filming Regulations." The proposed ordinance establishes a standardized permitting process for film, television, and digital media productions, outlines applicable fees, and sets forth insurance and indemnification requirements to protect the City's interests.

This regulatory framework has been developed in collaboration with the Laredo Film Society and the Texas Film Commission as part of the City's strategic goal to achieve Film Friendly Texas certification. Adoption of this ordinance will enhance Laredo's competitiveness in attracting productions, promote local economic development, and further position the City as a premier filming destination in Texas.
