VOLUNTARY RETIREE INCENTIVE PROGRAM POLICY

City Hall Department of the City Manager's Office
1110 Houston Laredo, TX
19th, August 2024

VOLUNTARY RETIREE INCENTIVE PROGRAM TO ALL ELIGIBLE CITY EMPLOYEES

Summary

Implementing a Voluntary Retiree Incentive Program (RIP) can be a strategic move for organizations looking to manage workforce transitions effectively. The program aims to recognize the contribution of retirees, promote knowledge transfer, and optimize planning.

A voluntary retiree incentive program (RIP) is a strategic initiative implemented by organizations to encourage employees to voluntarily retire from their position by offering them incentives established by management criteria. These incentives may include financial benefits, extended healthcare coverage, or other prescribed criteria, aimed at facilitation workforce transitions and managing organizational resources effectively.

Applicability

The policy applies to all eligible City of Laredo employees with twenty or more City of Laredo continuous full-time employment service.

Distribution

This policy is available in hard copy and in electronic media on the City of Laredos' website under the City Manager's department category and in the Human Resources Department category.

Timing and Implementation: The Voluntary Retiree Incentive Program will be implemented based on Policy Activation Mechanism as outline below, through City Council approval.

Communication Plan:

HR will provide a report on eligible employees that meet the retirement criteria as outlined and conduct an information session to educate those employees about the Voluntary Retiree Incentive Program, including eligibility criteria, incentives offered, and application process.
