Section 5: The Conditional Use Permit authorized by this ordinance shall be revoked pursuant to the Laredo Land Development Code, section 24.94.10, entitled “Revocation,” according to the criteria and procedures described therein and below:

1. Revocation

If it is determined based on inspection by the Planning Director or reasonable investigation by the City Manager, or his designee, that there exist reasonable grounds for revocation of a Conditional Use Permit, a public hearing shall be set before the Zoning Commission and the City Council.

A. Circumstances that warrant revocation of an approved conditional use permit include, but shall not be limited to, any of the following:

1. Violation of any of the conditions of the conditional use permit if not corrected to the satisfaction of the City within 90 days of the owner having received written notice of the violation and the means necessary to correct it;
2. A plea of guilty or no-contest to an offense that that occurs on the property for which the conditional use permit is granted involving any zoning ordinance or provision of the City’s Land Development Code;
3. The building, premise, or land uses under the conditional use permit is enlarged, modified, structurally altered, or otherwise significantly changed without the approval of a separate conditional use permit for such enlargement, modification, structural alteration or change;

4. Violation of any provision of the site plan encompassing the property for which the conditional use permit was issued for, terms or conditions of a conditional use permit;
5. The conditional use permit was obtained by fraud or with deception.

B. Revocation process. The revocation process shall be conducted through a public hearing and recommendation by the Zoning Commission, followed by a public hearing and ordinance amendment consideration by the City Council. The City Council may revoke the conditional use permit, deny the revocation and allow the use to continue, or deny the revocation and amend the conditional use permit to attach conditions to assure that the terms, conditions and requirements of the conditional use permit be met.

C. Effect of revocation. Upon the effective date of the revocation, it shall be unlawful to undertake or perform any activity that was previously authorized by the conditional use permit. Any person, firm, or corporation, who violates, disobeys, omits, neglects or refuses to comply with or who resists the enforcement of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not more than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) for each offense. Each day that a violation exists shall constitute a separate offense.
