Recognition and Communication
5:00 P.M.

The Mayor will be presenting the following:

1. Recognizing Sandra Cavazos Ayala or her role as a bilingual author of children's books, and illustrator Cindy Elizabeth Sherwood for promoting literacy among our youth and in her hometown of Laredo and all over the world.
2. Recognition of local runners that competed in the 2024 128th Boston Marathon.
3. Recognition of the Laredo Fire Department in achieving Preliminary ISO Rating.
4. Recognizing Margarita Araiza for her long-standing dedication and passion for preserving our history and heritage as the executive director of the Webb County Heritage Foundation for 28 years.
5. Recognition of Mary Help of Christians School 4th grade basketball champions.
6. Recognitions of Mary Help of Christians School 4th grade soccer champions.
7. Recognition of Alexander High School swim team,

Girls Team - Regional Champions 3 years in a row (2022, 2023 and 2024)

Chelsea Chavez- was State qualifier for the 3rd time in a row. (200 Freestyle, 500 Freestyle)

Oliva Farias - Voted Top Regional Diver

Analucia Diaz - Voted Top District Diver

8. Recognizing Ms. Stephanie Lozano and Ms. Meghan Leyendecker, Alexander High School students, for their remarkable non-profit project, "500 Pounds of Love." Since its inception during their freshman year in 2022, Stephanie and Meghan have tirelessly collected and donated over 10,000 pounds of pet food to local organizations. Their dedication and commitment to community service serve as an inspiring example of youth-driven philanthropy. We applaud their contributions, which have truly made Laredo proud!
9. Recognizing United High School 2023-2024 Larriettes for their outstanding accomplishments of winning three consecutive MA National Titles under guidance of Mrs. Gina Lara Portillo. With a rich history spanning 52 years, the Larriettes have established an extraordinary legacy of tradition and excellence.

Their third consecutive MA National title in 2024 is a testament to their unwavering dedication and relentless hard work. Participating in prestigious events such as the MA Austin's Dance Classic and the MA San Antonio Regional, where they earned impressive rankings, highlights their exceptional talent and skill on a regional level before competing on the national stage.

With a team comprising of 50 members, the Larriettes stand a formidable force in the super high school team division, consistently facing tough competition and demonstrating their expertise both within their division and beyond. We commend their remarkable achievements and celebrate their continued success.

- 10. Recognizing Ximena Salazar, a member of the United High School 2023-2024 Larriettes, for winning the MA National Solo Championship. Ximena's dedication to choreographing and mixing music for her hip-hop solo, while also attending team practices, exemplifies her unwavering commitment to excellence. Despite facing initial challenges due to the unconventional nature of her solo, Ximena surpassed expectations and secured the MA National Solo Championship, achieving a perfect score at nationals. This exceptional accomplishment distinguishes her as the sole Larriette to achieve such a remarkable success. We applaud Ximena for her talent, determination, and exceptional achievement, which have brought immense pride to United High School, the Larriettes team, and the City of Laredo.
- 11. Recognition of the Honore Ligarde Elementary Lady Unicorns on their undefeated season with the Laredo Boys and Girls Club. The team has shown remarkable skills and determination resulting in consecutive championships.
